Campers may register for as many sessions as they want as long as there are slots available.

Campers:

Age range from 6 and up (not all 6-year old's are ready for chess). Our camp caters to all levels of chess players.

School Chess Association Summer camp offers:

- Professional (Licensed) teachers who know children and how to teach them.
- Chess instruction tailored to the students' individual needs.
- Five levels of instruction (beginning, advanced beginners, intermediate, advanced, and super advanced) each under the direction of a separate teacher or chess master.
- A wide variety of optional activities in addition to chess instruction and merit-point tournaments, including swimming, water slides, field ball, Magic the Gathering, soccer, tennis, roller skating, bowling, fishing, sign language, bus ride to activities, and role playing games. No extra charge for activities. Campers are always under supervision.
- Lunch is provided and catered each day. PLEASE SEND A BEVERAGE WITH YOUR CHILD EACH DAY.

Written confirmation, carpooling lists, and TAX FORMS ARE E-MAILED approximately two weeks before the start of your camper's 1st session. Please keep your tax forms.
